EXPLANATORY NOTES

Introduction

This publication is issued each month as a supplement to the annual Catalogue of Publications and Products, Australia (1101.0) of the Australian Bureau of Statistics, which lists current ABS publications and gives brief descriptions (abstracts) of their contents. In addition, a Publications Advice (1105.0) is issued each Tuesday and Friday listing publications released on the day of issue and expected releases on the following five days (Canberra Office) or two days (State Offices).

2. Publishing News contains brief descriptions of the contents of new publications, describes changes in ABS publications and shows other information of interest to users of ABS publications.

Publication prices

3. A single price now applies to publications despatched by surface mail, both within Australia and overseas, and to counter sales. Airmail rates are available on request.

Mailing service

4. Clients who wish to receive free or priced publications on a regular basis may use the ABS computerised Publications Mailing Service. Further details and order forms are available from any ABS office.

5. Clients who already use this service and who wish to amend their requirements should quote their account number when contacting ABS. The account number is shown at the top left hand corner of the address label used to despatch publications to clients.

6. Renewal notices are sent to all subscribers annually in respect of the subscription year commencing on 1 January. Payment for priced publications is required in advance and should accompany renewal notices returned to ABS.

Statistical information service

7. Each ABS office has an Information Service to assist clients. The service is designed to answer inquiries from clients on available official statistics, including statistics not published for economic reasons. Unpublished statistics cover a variety of topics such as population, dwellings, building, imports, exports, shipping, etc., in the form of computer printout, microfiche, magnetic tape or specially prepared tables.

8. In cases where a considerable volume of data has to be specially extracted or where a regular statistical service is required, a charge will be made.

Electronic services

VIATEL. Key *656# for selected current economic, social and demographic statistics.

AUSSTATS. Thousands of up-to-date time series are available on this ABS on-line service through PAXUS COMNET.

- 4119.0 Australia's Children, 1989 ($17.50)

A comprehensive statistical report focusing on children aged less than 15 years. Subjects covered include their demographic profile, family income and housing, health, arrangements for child care, education, welfare and recreation. The style of the report is similar to that of Social Indicators, Australia, No. 4, 1984 (4101.0), i.e. with commentaries introducing data in each chapter and charts highlighting key data.

- 5235.0 A Guide to the Australian National Accounts, 1990 ($5.00)

Contains a brief outline of the most important features of the national accounts. It is intended to provide the reader with a basic understanding of the meaning and uses of the national accounts, and will be a useful information source for high school and university students and others (e.g. business people), who need an explanation of the national accounts without too much economic jargon.

- 5236.0 Information Paper: Measuring Unpaid Household Work — Issues and Experimental Estimates

Discusses the issues involved in measuring unpaid household work. It also uses data collected from a pilot time use survey conducted in Sydney in May 1987 to produce a range of experimental estimates of the value of unpaid household work.

- 8662.0 Professional and Business Services, 1987-88 ($8.00)

For each State and Territory, the number of enterprises, persons employed, wages and salaries, turnover, gross product and net operating surplus by industry class.
